

PARTICIPATORY INTEGRATED DEVELOPMENT SOCIETY (PIDS)

TERMS OF REFERENCE

For Individual Consultant & Training Firms

(Livelihood Enhancement and Protection Unit Trainings for Community Institutions under Program for Poverty Reduction Project (PPR) in district Kila Abdullah UC Zhara Band)

Organization

Participatory Integrated Development Society (PIDS) is not-for-profit organization, an off shoot of Balochistan Rural Water Supply and Sanitation project (BRUWAS) funded by Royal Netherlands Embassy, Govt. of Balochistan, and Local Govt. & Rural Development Department registered under Societies Registration Act, 1860 (Registration No. 869 March 1999). PIDS has been working in Balochistan since 1999 and enjoys facilitation and financial support from various donors particularly the PPAF and World Population Fund. PIDS aims to be the catalyst for improving the quality of life, broadening range of opportunities and socio-economic mainstreaming of the poor and disadvantaged, especially women. PIDS also has delivered a range of development interventions in areas like Quetta, Naseerabad, Jaffarabad, Lasbela, Turbat, Pishin, Loralai, Kila Abdullah, Dear Bughti and Kohlu aiming at strengthening the institutional capacity of the community based organizations, and support the creation of organizations of the poor, that can work together to alleviate poverty and achieve SDGs at the grass root level. Thematic areas of PIDS include Institutional Development, Livelihood, Community Physical Infrastructure (CPI), Health, Education and Emergency Relief.

1. Background and Rationale:

After learning and reflecting from its previous experience in LEP project at grass root level, PIDS has now focused the Livelihood component on purely market based, demand driven trainings to ensure sustainable employment and/or self-employment, enlisting a wide range of community driven trainings to capacitate CRPs, VOs and LSO members to further train the community members at household or CO level on sustainable basis.

In this regard, PIDS aims to implement a comprehensive training programme for ultra poor under its LEP project in district Kila Abdullah to reduce the poverty and enhance the technical capacity of community members. The project will be implemented in UC Zhara Band (Kila Abdullah) with the financial support of Pakistan Poverty Alleviation Funds (PPAF) under its Italian project. PIDS has already formed COs, VOs and LSO through its social mobilization process. In order to strengthen these community institutions, various trainings (Kila Abdullah) as appended below are being offered. 1. Enterprise Development Training (EDT), 2. Agriculture Management, 3. Livestock Management, 4. Technical and vocational trainings.

2. Objectives of the consultancy
